

ALAN CAMP ARCHITECTS

Newsletter - June 2015

News roundup

Bell Road

We have just submitted a mixed-use planning application on behalf of A2 Dominion for Bell Road. The scheme configured in a U shape features two slender towers on opposing corners. The proposal accommodates over 1,100 sq.m. of commercial space with associated parking and 127 residential units above.

Harrington Gardens

We have been working with Fin-ex to remodel an existing block into luxury apartments within the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea. The first flat is nearing completion and the rest will soon be following on.

In other news..

No clues here!

This month we entered a team in the annual Better Bankside Charity Treasure Hunt, 'Alan Camp Arrrrchitects' came 3rd out of twenty teams! The event raised a staggering £675 for five local charities working with young people and the homeless population in Southwark. Well done guys!

A cut above the rest

Dockland Settlements was formally opened by Lord and Lady Cadogan. The opening ceremony included Floristry, Latino Bambino and Jamie Mehmet football demonstrations. The event marked the end of a project that we had been instrumental in putting together, through addressing the complex site constraints to achieve the planning, finding joint venture partners and working closely with Denne Construction.

The scheme was developed in collaboration with Southwark Youth Services and Property Division, and provides mixed-tenure houses and flats for Family Mosaic Housing Association, plus a new home for Dockland Settlements No.4 and the Odessa Street Youth Centre.

Pier-ing over the parapet

We have been working with Allenbuild South East / Gateway Housing Association on the £20 million development of Pier Street, Isle of Dogs. Having been appointed to do the construction drawings, we have successfully handed over Block's 3 & 4, blocks 1 & 2 are also due to be completed shortly.

A new stone age

The scaffolding on Christopher House has been struck by Purelake New Homes to reveal the stone cladding and curtain walling. The student accommodation will be completed in August to allow students of Rose Bruford College to move in prior to the start of term, Premier Inn will open their doors in November.